

GREAT REBATE SALE AT O'HARA'S

NO. 72 CANAL STREET.

We Make the Unparalleled Offer to Give
One Dollar with every $5.00 Purchase. Fifty Cents with every $2.50 Purchase.
Twenty-five Cents with every $1.50 Purchase.

Our stock contains the latest styles of Footwear for Ladies, Gents and Children, at prices that defy competition. We make this unprecedented offer this week to induce the public to test the sterling merits of our goods, as we are confident that we will gain trade by so doing. Remember, we give you full value for your money and also a cash present to every purchaser of $1.50 or more. Buy now and save a dollar at O'HARA'S, No. 72 Canal street.

served at the Country Club house, and the usual good taste of the management prevailed. The mayor and J. C. Hinkley joined the party later in the evening and accompanied the women home. Miss Brown of Milwaukee, Miss Smith of Ansonia, Conn., Miss Holtwood of Waterbury, Conn., Miss Ellis of Detroit, Miss Martindale of Allegan, Miss Hinkley of western New York, Miss Hinkley of Mt. Clemens and Miss Hinkley of Detroit, and Harry Seal of Pittsburgh were present. Miss Strahan was robed in a pink silk Empress gown. Miss Conn wore a beautiful cardinal silk draped in black lace and Miss Moore was dressed in white china silk, adorned by delicate clusters of the corn flower.

Supper and Break Ride.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moseley of No. 323 Cherry street entertained for their son, E. Louis Moseley, a party of young people at their handsome home on Friday evening in honor of their guest, Miss George Brookings of Chicago. Fourteen was the lucky number that was seated around the table at 6 o'clock and were served to a sumptuous repast of six courses. The parlors and dining-room were fragrant with the perfume of sweet pea panicles that were the prevailing flower in the decorations. All of the appointments were of midsummer distinction. Mrs. Moseley was assisted by Mrs. Marie Vins, Mrs. T. P. Moseley, Mrs. Will Jones and Miss Emma Moseley. Besides the honored guest those present were Miss Bonnie Hentig, Miss Louise McLaren, the Misses Josephine and Marie Hinkley, Miss Lulu Dunham, Miss Louise Hall, Ray Crosby, Carroll Perkins, George Widdicombe, Harry and Beckley Jones and Stewart Knapp. Later in the evening the party enjoyed a two hours' moonlight break ride around the streets of the Valley City.

Mrs. Gero's Reception.
 Mrs. George Gero of No. 108 Washington street gave an afternoon tea on Tuesday, from 4 to 6 o'clock, in honor of her sister, Miss Stewart of Utica, New York. Invitations were sent to seventy-five of her friends who were present on the delightful occasion. The house was decorated with pink garden flowers, the appointments of the dining-room from which dainty cakes and ices were served being in harmony with the prevailing tones. Mrs. Gero was assisted by Mrs. Loretta, Mrs. Denton, Mrs. Forbush, Mrs. Tinkham, Miss Putnam and Miss Remington. Miss Grace of Detroit was one of the guests.

Igdrasil Picnic.
 Friday afternoon the Igdrasil literary club, and a goodly number of invited friends enjoyed themselves at Reed's lake, returning to the city by moonlight. Supper was had in the pavilion, and boat riding and bathing, and a generally old-fashioned picnic time was celebrated.

MATRIMONIAL.
 The marriage of Dr. Will Mansfield, a well-known young man to many Grand Rapids people, and Miss Lena Morley, formerly a nurse in the U. S. A. training school for nurses, was celebrated last Monday at the old home of the parties in Vermontville, Ohio.

Next Tuesday morning Albert Houghtaling of this city will be married to Miss Viola Clapper. The wedding will be at the home of the mother of the bride, Mrs. A. Clapper, No. 4 Springfield avenue.

The engagement of Dr. William Hake to Miss Clara Voght will consummate in the nuptials which will occur some time in September.

Minor Society Events.
 The Deutscher Coffee Krautchen held its fortnightly meeting Friday afternoon at Mrs. Leonard's on South Union street. The entire program was conducted in German, and the ladies wore all of the Rhine country regalia.

The midsummer reception at the Young Men's Christian association building which was given Tuesday evening to the employees of five different factories was one of the most successful of the series of receptions.

The conference meeting of the Unitarian church will be held Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith, on the corner of Lyon street and College avenue. A social will follow the business meeting.

On Monday evening Robert A. Barnard gave a dinner at the Country club to a party of guests. The table was handsomely decorated with the flowers of the season. Water lilies were the most prominent.

On Wednesday afternoon James Houghtaling invited a party of ten young society people of the city on his nuptial launch to witness the regatta races of the Grand Rapids Boat and Canoe club.

The Sunday school convention at Bay View was adjourned Wednesday by Mrs. L. W. Treat of Grand Rapids. Her subject was "The Spiritual Side of the Kindergarten."

H. W. Stebbins and W. B. Folger were elected Tuesday night by the Grand Rapids Bicycle club to attend the state convention to be held in Detroit August 4.

Miss Belle Ransdell of No. 331 East Fulton street gave a picnic party on Thursday to Reed's lake in compliment to a dozen or more of her young friends.

The women of the First Reformed church are arranging to hold a lawn tea Thursday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Dr. Muller, on Lagrange street.

Calhoun gave an informal musicale to a few of her friends in honor of the family guest, Arthur Scott, of Clinton, N. Y. Grace church choir, numbering twenty-five, returned to the city Thursday from Softwater lake, where they had been camping for two weeks.

The Good Templars of the city will go in large numbers to Hackley park on Friday, August 4, to witness the dedication of the new temple.

The Westminster Presbyterian Sunday school went down the river Thursday on the steamer Harriet for a picnic.

The South End W. C. T. U. gave an afternoon social Friday evening at No. 704 South Division street.

The Columbian Social club gave a dance at the North park pavilion Wednesday evening.

The Felicity club met yesterday afternoon at No. 139 Madison avenue.

World's Fair Visitors.
 Mrs. D. H. Waters, accompanied by the family guest, Miss Brook of New York, went to Chicago Thursday. Mrs. Waters is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Cascard. Miss Brook will return to Oakhurst during the week.

Mrs. Franklin Kunkle and son Comstock Kunkle went to Chicago Wednesday night. Mrs. Kunkle will remain several weeks. Her son will return to the city today.

Frank J. Lewis went to Chicago yesterday to officiate as best man at the marriage of Circuit Court Commissioner McGill and Miss Estelle Stark.

Mrs. Charles Hayden, Jr., left for Chicago Wednesday night, where she will visit a few days and will then go to her home in Leadville, Colorado.

Col. Ellsworth Russell, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Brooks of Twelfth avenue, for some time, went to Chicago Monday.

Mrs. Alice Haynes will leave with a party tomorrow for Chicago, where she will visit her two sons and visit the world's fair.

Mrs. Bert Rice and sister, Miss Minnie Morse of Coit avenue, have gone for a few weeks' visit to Chicago and Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Schenck are in Chicago and before they return to the city will visit Louisville and Indianapolis.

Miss Putnam of South College avenue and Miss Ulrick of Columbus, Ohio, are visiting Miss Greer of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Norton of No. 300 Lake avenue spent the week visiting the world's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stoketee, Jr., of No. 250 Sheldon street are at the world's fair.

Edward C. McBride, son of Attorney McBride, is visiting the world's fair.

Miss Agda Hemple and Miss Olga Russell are in Chicago at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Brooks went to the world's fair Wednesday.

Henry Peterson and Walter Biersema are visiting the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. John Osebold are in Chicago visiting the fair.

W. M. Phelps went to Chicago Friday to remain two weeks.

Alderman and Mrs. Hauer left for Chicago yesterday.

Miss Kate and Maggie Perrine have gone to Chicago.

A. Hubbard is visiting the world's fair.

D. Nei has left for Chicago to visit the fair.

Mrs. T. C. Morton is at the world's fair.

Edward Lowe went to Chicago Thursday.

H. C. Whitney is at the world's fair.

John F. Wheeler is in Chicago.

Persons in the City.
 Miss Hester Fuller of No. 258 North Prospect street and her sister, Miss Alice, Miss Mattie Stanshish of Newaygo, Mrs. Delia Jordan, daughter, Miss Carrie, of No. 211 North Prospect street, and Miss Delia Andrew of No. 212 North Prospect street, came home Thursday from a pleasant visit to Chicago and the world's fair. Miss Andrew also made a visit to friends in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Hugh McDowell of St. Louis, Mo., and her daughter, Miss Evelyn McDowell, who have been the guests for the past week of the family of Edward Taggart of No. 139 North Chicago avenue, will remain until Wednesday when they will go to Omaha.

Miss Moore of Allegan, who has been the guest of Miss Mae Strahan of No. 101 Mt. Vernon street, left yesterday to be the guest of Miss McCraith of No. 300 Cherry street until Wednesday, when she will return to her home.

Miss Marion Weed of Janes street, a teacher in the public schools, has returned from the world's fair and is visiting her sister in Lansing. Miss Winchester and Miss Cora Gardner are visiting with her.

The Messrs. Mary and Emma Langley of No. 12 Parkside terrace, are visiting their uncle, Joseph Langley of Hyde park, Chicago. Miss Emma attended the stenographer's convention during the week.

Mrs. M. Cratesenberg of St. Louis and her daughter, Miss Helen, are visiting Mrs. Cratesenberg's sister, Mrs. Dan Powers of Ransom street and her niece, Mrs. George Van Dyke, of Crescent avenue.

Louis Milburn of Charlotte came from his home Monday to visit his sister, Miss Rita Milburn of East Bridge street. He returned to Charlotte Wednesday, making the trip on his bicycle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Young of Geneva, Ohio, came to Grand Rapids last Wednesday to make the Valley City their permanent home. Their residence is on East Fulton street.

Edward Taggart and son, Louis Taggart, returned Tuesday from a visit to the family of the Hon. Moses Taggart, who is spending the summer in their cottage at White Lake.

Ben Schroeder and Ed Renker came home Wednesday morning after a pleasant vacation of two weeks spent in Cleveland, Chicago and at the Columbian fair.

Miss Mattie Stanshish of Newaygo, a teacher of the Muskegon kindergarten school, is a guest of her cousin, Miss Hester Fuller of No. 238 North Prospect street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Denton and little daughter of Lowell are the guests of their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Denton of No. 525 East Fulton street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Beck of No. 64 Seventh street, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Barr and son Albert, of Grand Island, Nebraska.

George Schroeder and Bridge street came home Wednesday night from a vacation trip to Chicago and the world's fair.

Miss Rose Puddy of Rochester and Miss E. A. Bray of Wyandotte, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Puddy of No. 285 Goodrich street.

Mr. Addison Goodman and family of North College avenue will go this week to rusticate for the summer on a farm near White Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller and the Messrs. Jennie and Barbara Miller returned Thursday from a visit to the great fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Bango of No. 258 Case street came home from a trip to the Columbian fair last Wednesday morning.

Miss Myra Wonderly and Miss Bernice Perkins of New York city are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perkins of State street.

Mrs. E. Fitzgerald and daughter, Mrs. H. N. Nelson, all of Jefferson avenue, have returned from a visit to the world's fair.

Miss Florence Stephenson of North Carolina is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. Wallace McKee of No. 19 North avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Stot, from Hudson-on-the-Hudson, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Torrey of Washington street.

P. H. Kierstead and daughter of Munice, Indiana, are visiting Dr. Kierstead of No. 161 West Bridge street.

Miss Beckwith of western New York is the guest of her brother, Charles Beckwith of No. 18 Kellogg street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lamos of Madison avenue are entertaining Mrs. A. W. Hewett of Malden, Massachusetts.

The Messrs. Emma and Lulu Baker of Westminister, Massachusetts, are visiting their parents on Page street.

Miss Ellis of Detroit is the guest of Miss Belknap, daughter of the Hon. C. E. Belknap of Madison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adams of College avenue entertained their son, Edson B. Adams, of Albany, New York.

Westley Maynard of Shiloh is visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Maynard and J. D. Harvey, of Crescent avenue.

L. B. Wagner of No. 372 Union street is entertaining his niece, Miss Laura Hill of Taberville, Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wetzel of Portsmouth terrace, are entertaining Miss Anna Sweeney of Bay City.

Mrs. Albert Zinaburg of Detroit is being entertained by Mrs. W. T. Webster of No. 709 Jefferson avenue.

Miss Daisy Wagner of Fountain and Union streets, returned Wednesday from a visit to the world's fair.

Mrs. Georgia Smith, of Fort Wayne, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, of Tenth avenue.

Mrs. Margaret Tucker of Byron is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Henson of Twelfth avenue.

Mrs. Ed Meadmoir of Omaha, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mabel, are guests in the city.

Miss Hostie, who is visiting Miss Margaret Long of Sheldon street, will leave for home on Tuesday.

Miss Smith of Ansonia, Connecticut, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Boltwood of North park.

Mrs. W. T. Webster of No. 709 Jefferson avenue is entertaining Mrs. Albert Zinaburg of Detroit.

Miss Inez Bonnell, who spent a week in the country, has returned to her home on Wealthy avenue.

Miss Effie, Dishman, who has been visiting relatives in Marshall, has returned to the city.

Miss Hattie Hobkins of Saranac, who has been visiting Miss Maude Kinney of No. 151 Coit avenue, went home on Friday. Miss Kinney accompanied her for a month's visit.

George McCready of No. 171 South Prospect street left yesterday for a week's camping at Ottawa beach. He was joined by eight young men from out of town.

Miss George Brookings, who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moseley of No. 323 Cherry street, will return to her home in Chicago on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McLellan of Carleton, Canada, have returned to their home after a visit to their sister, Mrs. Marie Vins, of No. 45 Jefferson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Smith of Cincinnati, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith of Lyon street, went to Pottery yesterday.

Charles B. Froehman, assistant secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, spent the week at Gunn lake with a party of friends.

Mrs. William Kramer and son, Karl, and Mrs. Fred Emery and daughter, Maud, are spending the summer at their cottage at Glava beach.

Miss Kate Thompson of Detroit, who has been entertained by Miss Anna Calhoun of North Lafayette street, went to her home yesterday.

Mrs. W. K. Monroe went to Saginaw to be present at the wedding of her sister, Miss Josie Miller, who was married Thursday night.

Mrs. Edward Taggart and daughter, Miss Mabel Taggart, will go next week to be the guests for a time of Mrs. O. W. Knox of Hart.

Miss Grace of Detroit, who has for some time been the guest of Miss Jeanne Ball of South College avenue, has gone to her home.

Elmer Garritt of Ionia, who has been in the city visiting Charles Farwell of No. 121 Westwick street, went to Ionia Thursday.

Mr. Lincoln Bowen and son returned last night from a four months' visit with friends in Chicago. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. McComber, came with her, and will remain here a few weeks.

P. L. Hamilton, Agnes VanBuren, Frances VanBuren, Abbie M. Bush and Linda Cooper, have returned from a ten days' visit to the world's fair.

Mrs. G. D. Clinton, Miss Bird McWilliam of Wealthy avenue, and A. E. Clinton, of Chicago, have returned from Broadwater Bay, Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Simonds, of Chicago, are being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Markoff.

E. J. Renker and Ben Schroeder have returned from a trip to Detroit, Cleveland and Chicago.

Miss Lucy Gould has returned from the fair to her home at No. 330 Jefferson avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Nellie have returned from an extended visit to Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Dr. McNaughton of Washington, is visiting among old friends in Grand Rapids.

Miss Grosebeck of Mt. Clemens is the guest of Mrs. Menhennick of Scribner street.

Miss Martindale of Allegan is the guest of her brother, Willard Martindale.

Howard Brook and Jack Williams of New York city are guests at Oakhurst.

Miss Mary H. Stunt has returned from a week's stay at Wequetonings.

Miss Hattie Cutler has returned from a two weeks' visit at the world's fair.

Mrs. F. E. Hankin and son are at home from a visit to Ottawa beach.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kusterer and family have returned from St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dryden are entertaining Harry Reid of Pittsburgh.

Dr. J. Orton Edie and Miss Mabel, went to Chicago Tuesday night.

A. E. Worden and family are at home from a visit to the world's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Withey are at home from a visit to the fair.

Miss Rogers of Florence, Italy, is the guest of Roger Griswold.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Greenfield have returned from Chicago.

Mrs. V. A. Eddy of Pottery is visiting her son, V. H. Eddy.

Miss Clara Hunt of Muskegon is visiting friends in the city.

A. D. Baker is home from a visit to Grand Traverse.

Persons Out of the City.
 The Rev. Dr. J. E. Roberts and his bride are the guests of the family of D. P. Clay at their summer cottage at Hesa Lake. Dr. Roberts was formerly the pastor of the Unitarian church of Grand Rapids, and for the last five years has been the pastor of the Unitarian church of Kansas City.

Miss Florence Kerby, who has been for four weeks the guest of her brother, Harry Kerby, left the city Friday morning to return to her home in Streator, Ill. She spent the day in Grand Haven the guest of Lena Belle Bridgeman.

Charles E. Hilton of No. 87 East Bridge street went to Neahawanta yesterday to join Mrs. Hilton and his daughters, the Messrs. Florence and Maud, who are spending the summer in their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lindsey of Lyon and Ransom street will leave tomorrow for a summer visit to Clinton, Webster City, and other towns in Iowa. They will also visit the world's fair.

Miss Hattie Hobkins of Saranac, who has been visiting Miss Maude Kinney of No. 151 Coit avenue, went home on Friday. Miss Kinney accompanied her for a month's visit.

George McCready of No. 171 South Prospect street left yesterday for a week's camping at Ottawa beach. He was joined by eight young men from out of town.

Miss George Brookings, who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moseley of No. 323 Cherry street, will return to her home in Chicago on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McLellan of Carleton, Canada, have returned to their home after a visit to their sister, Mrs. Marie Vins, of No. 45 Jefferson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Smith of Cincinnati, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith of Lyon street, went to Pottery yesterday.

Charles B. Froehman, assistant secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, spent the week at Gunn lake with a party of friends.

Mrs. William Kramer and son, Karl, and Mrs. Fred Emery and daughter, Maud, are spending the summer at their cottage at Glava beach.

Miss Kate Thompson of Detroit, who has been entertained by Miss Anna Calhoun of North Lafayette street, went to her home yesterday.

Mrs. W. K. Monroe went to Saginaw to be present at the wedding of her sister, Miss Josie Miller, who was married Thursday night.

Mrs. Edward Taggart and daughter, Miss Mabel Taggart, will go next week to be the guests for a time of Mrs. O. W. Knox of Hart.

Miss Grace of Detroit, who has for some time been the guest of Miss Jeanne Ball of South College avenue, has gone to her home.

Elmer Garritt of Ionia, who has been in the city visiting Charles Farwell of No. 121 Westwick street, went to Ionia Thursday.

Mr. Lincoln Bowen and son returned last night from a four months' visit with friends in Chicago. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. McComber, came with her, and will remain here a few weeks.

P. L. Hamilton, Agnes VanBuren, Frances VanBuren, Abbie M. Bush and Linda Cooper, have returned from a ten days' visit to the world's fair.

Mrs. G. D. Clinton, Miss Bird McWilliam of Wealthy avenue, and A. E. Clinton, of Chicago, have returned from Broadwater Bay, Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Simonds, of Chicago, are being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Markoff.

E. J. Renker and Ben Schroeder have returned from a trip to Detroit, Cleveland and Chicago.

Miss Lucy Gould has returned from the fair to her home at No. 330 Jefferson avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Nellie have returned from an extended visit to Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Dr. McNaughton of Washington, is visiting among old friends in Grand Rapids.

Miss Grosebeck of Mt. Clemens is the guest of Mrs. Menhennick of Scribner street.

Miss Martindale of Allegan is the guest of her brother, Willard Martindale.

Howard Brook and Jack Williams of New York city are guests at Oakhurst.

Miss Mary H. Stunt has returned from a week's stay at Wequetonings.

Miss Hattie Cutler has returned from a two weeks' visit at the world's fair.

Mrs. F. E. Hankin and son are at home from a visit to Ottawa beach.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kusterer and family have returned from St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dryden are entertaining Harry Reid of Pittsburgh.

Dr. J. Orton Edie and Miss Mabel, went to Chicago Tuesday night.

A. E. Worden and family are at home from a visit to the world's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Withey are at home from a visit to the fair.

Miss Rogers of Florence, Italy, is the guest of Roger Griswold.

A BOTTOMLESS PIT!

Tawns for those who pay two prices for one article. It means financial ruin, homes broken up and lives demoralized. Avoid extravagance as you would a pestilence. Buy those things which will give you greatest returns for the least money invested.

gives full value for every penny invested. His Furniture stands the test of wear and time, and the test of VALUE. We are just now retailing the finest and largest line of

BURKHARDT

BEDROOM SUITS

Ever shown in Grand Rapids, without exception. There are over a hundred styles from which to select. The assortment is bewildering in its variety of designs and decorations. We are able to offer these goods at

SILVER PRICES

Our general stock was never in better shape to select from. We are doing business every day in spite of the financial depression.

Parlor Furniture at Silver Prices.

Upholstered Rockers at Silver Prices.

Couches and Tete-a-Tetes at Silver Prices.

Everything at Silver Prices.

BURKHARDT

THE FURNITURE MAN.

NO. 115 CANAL STREET.

GRAND RAPIDS ELECTRIC CO.
 EXCLUSIVE AGENTS
Edison & Thayer-Houston
 SYSTEMS IN WESTERN MICHIGAN
 ALL KINDS OF ELECTRICAL CONSTRUCTION SUPPLIES & REPAIRS